BIOGRAPHY

Matteo Bizzarri (b. 1996, Florence) is a logician and musician based in Pisa. He is currently a PhD candidate in Philosophy at the Scuola Normale Superiore, where he focuses on non-classical logics, probability, philosophy of belief, and the connections between logic and music. He studied Philosophy at the University of Pisa, earning both his BA and MA with theses in formal logic and semantics. Alongside his philosophical work, Matteo is deeply engaged in music. He holds a degree in Jazz Piano from the ISSM "Mascagni" in Livorno, where he wrote a thesis on Mal Waldron, and is completing a second master's degree in Jazz Composition with a dissertation dedicated to the work of Claus Ogerman. His research also includes the study of the relationship between music and logic, and he has taken part in various interdisciplinary projects in this field, presenting his work at several national and international conferences.

CURRICULUM

2023-	Master's Degree in Jazz Composition ISSM MASCAGNI · Livorno  Thesis on Claus Ogerman. Supervisor: Prof. Mauro Grossi
2022-	PhD in Philosophy SCUOLA NORMALE SUPERIORE · Pisa  Dissertation on beliefs, logic, and the relation between logic and music. Supervisor: Prof. Mario Piazza, co-supervisor Prof. Satoshi Tojo.
2019–2021	M.A. in Philosophy and Forms of Knowledge UNIVERSITY OF PISA · Pisa  Thesis: "Framing Beliefs into Fractional Semantics for Classical Logic". Supervisor: Prof. Enrico Moriconi, co-supervisor prof. Gabriele Pulcini.
2016–2022	B.A. in Jazz Piano ISSM MASCAGNI · Livorno  Thesis on Mal Waldron. Supervisor: Prof. Andrea Pellegrini.
2016–2019	B.A. in Philosophy UNIVERSITY OF PISA · Pisa  Thesis: "The Completeness Theorem: analysis of a logical result". Supervisor: Prof. Enrico Moriconi.
2016–2020	Course in Baroque Organ with Prof. Anna Picchiarini ORGAN SCHOOL · Pistoia  Baroque and Romantic organ studied on historical instruments of the Diocese of Pistoia. Focused on the works of J.S. Bach and G. Frescobaldi.
